NEWS RELEASE

LAW SOCIETY OF ALBERTA SUSPENDS LICENCE OF DE WINTON LAWYER

Out of concern for the public interest, the Law Society of Alberta issued an interim suspension order against De Winton lawyer Garth Stanley Bailey on March 11, 2005. Law Society President, Douglas McGillivray, said "This means that Bailey is not licensed to practise law unless this interim suspension is lifted, and clients or potential clients should not deal with him. His professional corporation permit was also suspended immediately and we have an investigation currently underway into the conduct of his practice."

Client files can be obtained from the Custodian of his practice:
